

THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE

John 11:25-26 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

What a wonderful fact and a wonderful promise! Jesus is risen and later ascended to heaven. This piece of art is exhibited in a museum in Europe. The artist has the imagination of the disciples are looking up in awe.

Are you in awe and thankful when you know that Jesus died for your sins and now is risen and ascended so that you can have eternal life by believing in Him? If you have accepted Jesus as savior and Lord, praise God. Continue to Seek & serve Him. If not, please consider as soon as possible.
