

GOD DELIGHTS IN THOSE WHO FEAR HIM

This soldier on a horse sculpture shows the strength of the offense in his battle. Both the horse's strength and the army's strength are important. In every battle in life, we need strength, whether it is physical, mental, or spiritual, to overcome obstacles. Many of the people face their challenges with their own strength, which is often not sufficient. Excerpts from Isaiah 40:29-31: "He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak... those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength."

God is almighty. Our strength is not able to compare to His. He delights in those who fear him, who put their hope in his unfailing love. He loves us, and thus he will provide for all our needs, including our strength. However, we need to fear Him in terms of seeking and honoring Him. Seek His will, and follow His guidance. As seen in the background of Psalm 147, God rescued the Israelites from captivity. Restored them. Revival comes when people fear God.

Whenever you have an obstacle, seek God and obey Him. Have faith. God will ultimately assist you in overcoming it.

Psalm 147:10-11 His pleasure is not in the strength of the horse, nor his delight in the legs of the warrior; the Lord delights in those who fear him, who put their hope in his unfailing love.
